Rebels top Wildcats in 5-4A opener

By Trenton Boudoin
Staff Writer

Abbeville and Teurlings found themselves matched up in the same district again. The only difference is that this time they are both in district 5-4A instead of district 6-3A.

Teurlings didn't wait very long before they got on the scoreboard. Teurlings quarterback Tyler Dugas was a perfect 3 for 3 on the drive for 49 yards. He ended the drive with a 27 yard touchdown pass.

Dugas completed 3 of 4 on the following drive and connected on a 13 yard pass to throw his second touchdown of the night.

"We played a very good team tonight," said Abbeville head coach Robert Toomer. "Teurlings is an established team. They are very talented and I think people take their speed for granted."

The Abbeville offense was never able to get anything going on the ground or through the air. The Teurlings offense continued to roll through the Abbeville defense, as they scored 42 points in the first half. Abbeville scored their only touchdown of the night on a five yard touchdown run by Jhordi Henderson just before half time.

"We just flat out got beat," said Toomer. "What I did see was that our kids didn't quit. We got beat pretty handily, but we have to move on. We are going to have to regroup in district and try to get the next one."

The third quarter was very quiet with nobody reaching the end zone. Teurlings would score their final touch-down early in the fourth to reach the final score of 51-6.

Teurlings was playing their first ever district 4A game. Their was talk that Teurlings would not be able to hang with 4A schools. They heard that talk and entered the game trying to make a statement, and they did.

"I think they did," said Toomer when asked if he believed that Teurlings had something to prove coming into the game. "It was their first 4A game and their first district game. I think they wanted to make a statement, which they did."

Abbeville will try to put this lose behind them and move forward.

"We have to get that winning edge," stated

Toomer. "We have to have the same attitude as Teurlings. I told our kids, sometimes a man is going to kick your but and there is nothing you can do about it. We have to get up again and try to get the next one. We are going to move on and try to get ready for Beau Chene."

Abbeville quarterback Giles Menard was 7 for 21 on the night with 142 yards. Mitchell Suire caught 3 passes on the night for 72 yards. Cody Williams caught 2 passes for 25 yards, Keelon Lee had two catches for 16 yards and Johnathon Hills and Will Armstrong each chipped in one catch a piece. Jhordi Henderson led the Wildcats with 39 yards on 9 carri Abbeville will try to change their fortunes next week at home when they take on Beau Chene.

Tigers feel battle tested

Opelousas believes they're ready for Teurlings' offense

By Eric Narcisse
enarcisse@dailyworld.com

Through four weeks this football season, the game plan for the Opelousas Tigers has been the same, use their offense as defense.

In other words, the Tigers want to grind out lengthy drives in an attempt to keep opposing teams offense on the sidelines.

They'll likely attempt the same strategy again at 7 p.m. today when they play host to the Teurlings Catholic Rebels in District 5-4A action at Donald Gardner Stadium.

"Ball control against Teurlings is very key," Tigers coach Paul Lanclos said. "That's been our game plan all year. We want to keep opposing offenses off the field and ball control is how you do it."

In order to control the football, running back Donovan Williams will be counted on heavily. On the season, Williams has rushed for team best 447 yards and four touchdowns on 40 carries.

"If Donovan has a good game it will increase our chances of winning," Tigers quarterback Dewon Guillory said. "When he gets a lot of rushing yards in a game, it gives the team confidence. It give us confidence that we can move the ball up and down the field against whoever we're playing."

Ball control isn't a bad strategy for the Tigers (2-2, 0-0), since the Rebels, who are coming off a 51 point outing against Abbeville, possess one of the most potent offenses in the state averaging slightly more than 36 points a game.

"There are a lot of keys to us winning this game," Lanclos said. "First of all we have to score points. We realize that it's going to be hard to stop an offense that is that potent. We're going to have to score points in order to keep our heads up and our morale up."

TCHS (3-1, 1-0) are led offensively by running backs Elliott Hebert and Andrew Hebert (49-289, 0 TDs). Elliott Hebert has rushed for 415 yards and 10 touchdowns on 59 carries, while also hauling in 12 passes for 199 yards and two touchdowns.

"Teurlings' rushing attack is a concern of mine," Lanclos said. "Their offensive line is real good, so if we don't stay in our lanes or we're not discipline up front it's possible they can pile up a lot of rushing yards that will open up their passing game."

When the Rebels aren't running, they are relying on the arm of quarterback Taylor Dugas, who has completed 43 of 73 passes for 540 yards, six touchdowns and one interceptions.

"Teurlings is a team that's mistake-free," Guillory said. "They are bigger, but not faster.

Opelousas senior receiver Terrance McDaniel, who caught the game-winning touchdown last week, will be counted on again tonight when the Tigers play host to Teurlings Catholic.

I don't see anything they do that we haven't seen. They put their shoulder pads on the same way we do, so they can be beaten. We'll have to play together."

Lanclos said his defense will have to continue to play as solidly as they've played all season, allowing slightly more than 22 points a game for the year.

"Our defense has been doing well all year," Lanclos said.

"They are not going to trick us, because the four teams we've played already run the same offense. We just can't miss tackles or have blown assignments. We have to continue to bend, but not break."

Rebels offense too much for Tigers

By Eric Marcisse

emarcisse@dailyworld.com

The Opelousas Tigers knew they were in for an uphill battle when they played host to the Teurlings Catholic Rebels at Donald Gardner Stadium on Thursday, but they certainly didn't expect to get dominated in the trenches.

Behind an offensive line that opened up gaping holes for the running backs and a defensive line that disrupted Opelousas' offense, the Rebels routed the Tigers 34-6 to improve to 4-1 overall and 2-0 in District 5-4A.

"Teurlings beat us up in the trenches," Tigers coach Paul Lanclos said. "Offensively we didn't capitalize on the opportunities when we had them and defensively we missed too many tackles. But give credit to Teurlings, they are a great football team."

The game could've been a lot worse than it was, being that the Rebels played their second string offense the entire second half. The Rebels out gained the Tigers 412-147 in the game en route to doubling them 20-10 in first downs.

"I told the kids that I'm not going to scream and holler," Lanclos said. "If they want to do it to themselves that's fine, but I'm not going to. They know who played well and who didn't play well. I don't have to scream and holler because they know."

Teurlings' domination began on their opening drive, taking a 7-0 lead on a two-yard touchdown run by Elliott Hebert capping a 12-play 72 yard drive that took 3:44 off the clock.

After the Tigers' drive stalled at midfield leading to a punt, OHS' defense forced a fumble that was recovered at their own 26-yard line by Oliver Thierry which halted a scoring threat by the Rebels.

But on the first play following the fumble which came after OHS had to burn a time-out, the Tigers gave the football right back to the Rebels on a fumble that was recovered by Teurlings at Opelousas' 22-yard line.

Five plays later, the Rebels made another visit to the end zone on a two-yard touchdown run by Andrew Hebert for a 14-0 lead with 11:56 remaining in the second quarter.

Defensively, the Tigers didn't play bad, but appeared to wear down as the game progressed largely because they spent so much time on the field as a result of the offense's inability to sustain drives or hang on to the football, turning it over five times in the game.

But Lanclos didn't see it that way.

"The defense spent a lot of time on the field, because Teurlings had long drives," Lanclos said. "I don't blame the offense, I blame the defense. They are the reason they were on the field so long."

The Rebels completely broke the game open on their next three possessions following

Andrew Hebert's touchdown, scoring TD's on all of them to take a 34-0 lead.

"There is a lot of blame to go around," Lanclos said. "But I told the kids before the game that if we lose this game it's not going to break our season and if we win this game it won't make our season."

Gators fall in overtime

By Seth Lewis
Daily World Sports Correspondent

PRAIRIE BASSE — Although they gave a valiant effort, the Beau Chene Gators came up short in their attempt to upset the state's No. 3-ranked Teurlings Catholic Rebels, falling 20-13 in overtime Friday.

As heavy underdogs against one of the best teams in the state, the Gators gave the Rebels all they could handle and more, before allowing a game-tying (13-13) touchdown with 29 seconds left in the game.

In overtime, Andrew Hebert scored an 1-yard touchdown run that gave the Rebels a 20-13 lead. The Gators attempt to answer the Rebels' touchdown with a score of its own, but they were stopped for negative gains inside the 2-yard line to end the game.

"My team played well today," James Waguespack said. "We were set not to lose from the beginning. We were just beat at the end."

Cornerback/receiver Scott LaGrange was one of the main contributors in the Gators defensive performance.

"Teurlings and Breau Bridge are the toughest teams in our district and we know we can compete with them," LaGrange said. "We're not intimidated by anyone. It hurts to lose a game like this. It seems like Beau Chene is snake bit when it comes to the close game."

LaGrange picked off two passes, while getting in on several tackles for the Gators in the loss. LaGrange also had 25 yards rushing and 15 yards receiving.

"I made a couple of interceptions out there," LaGrange said. "I believe everything (you do individually) is a team effort. If one person messes up, then 11 mess up. We have areas where we can improve, because one bad play I might make could be the difference between a win and a loss."

LaGrange first made his presence known on the third play of the game, intercepting a Taylor Dugas pass and returning it to the Rebels' 25-yard line.

"On that play there was a post corner and an in and out," LaGrange said. "I was able to cut in front and make the interception."

The Gators took full advantage of LaGrange's efforts, marching 25 yards in seven plays that was capped by a one yard touchdown run by quarterback Miles Taylor for a 7-0 lead after the PAT.

In the second quarter, Myles Thibodeaux added a 43-yard field goal with 7:11 remaining until halftime to give the Gators a 10-0 lead at the break.

Holding a Rebels team that entered the game averaging slightly more than 34 points a game on the season to zero points after 24 minutes was a major feat for the Gators' defense.

"Our offense and defense played well," Waguespack said. "We just didn't get many

St. Martinville

Turnovers and crucial penalties proved St. Martinville's undoing in a disappointing 24-14 loss to Beau Chene last Friday. That was coupled with a poor second half performance as players seemed to run out of gas down the stretch.

"We just made too many mistakes and let it get away from us in the second half," said head coach Marc Broussard Monday. "Our defense played well early, getting the touch-down and safety, but they looked worn down towards the end of the game."

Broussard has been working junior quarterback Jules Tripeaux into the lineup and he threw his first varsity touch-down pass for SM's only offensive TD against Beau Chene. "We're trying to give him more reps," said Broussard, "so we can use Gordy (Bourque) in different ways. But we were hampered by really poor field position through much of the game."

Broussard said he expects to see junior running back Bryson Mallery return to action this week while senior linebacker Jaswin Owens remains questionable with a sore knee and junior defensive back Sheldon Hypolite is doubtful after suffering a hip injury against Abbeville.

Odds makers give The Ville little chance of snapping its losing streak this Friday when they host the red-hot Teurlings Rebels, who have averaged more than 35 points per game in rolling up a 6-1, 4-0 records. Their only loss was a 20-18 squeaker to Notre Dame in the season opener.

"Their quarterback (Taylor Dugas) really does a good job of controlling the game and they've got two excellent running backs in the Hebert kids," observes Broussard. "They really spread things out when they have the ball and they use an unconventional 3-3 defense and keep their linebackers on the move so it really creates problems for your offensive blocking schemes. They're as explosive as any team we've faced and it's gonna be tough to slow them down."

But the first year coach doesn't feel that his Tigers are as bad as their 0-7 record looks, although he is concerned about warmer weather returning this week. "We've got several kids who have to go both ways and even with last Friday's cool temperatures we got tired towards the end of the game. But we're gonna keep trying."

BB-TC rivalry takes on extra meaning SM, CHS in home finales

Breaux Bridge and Teurlings Catholic have a spirited football rivalry that stretches back to 1981, but never before have the two teams met as members of the same district.

This year finds the Tigers and Rebels both in District 5-4A where Teurlings is in sole possession of first place with a 5-0 league record while Breaux Bridge suffered its first district loss to Northside last Friday and owns a 3-1 worksheet.

With just two remaining games, interim head coach Paul Broussard's Tigers must defeat the Rebels on the road Friday if they hope to at least share the 5-4A crown.

The two teams have met 18 times over the past 25 years and The Bridge holds a commanding 15-3 edge — the Rebels' last victory over BB was way back in 1986.

While this epic battle is taking place at Lafayette's Clark Field, Cecilia will be celebrating its homecoming against North Vermilion in a 6-3A match up while St. Martinville goes outside of District 5-4A to meet New Iberia, still looking for its first win of the season.

Friday marks the final home appearances in regular season play for all three parish teams.

Breaux Bridge

The Tiger defense just couldn't put the clamps on Viking quarterback Courtney Parker, who rushed for 132 yards and two touchdowns and completed 10-of-24 passes for 108 yards and two more scores.

"He's definitely the best we've faced thus far this year," commented Broussard Monday. "Unfortunately, we'll be seeing another quarterback who might be just as good this Friday at Teurlings."

And Breaux Bridge just couldn't get its offense really cranked up until the fourth quarter, when the Tigers struck for three touchdowns to almost catch the Vikings. The running game finished with 55 net yards, with tailback Jeremy Calais accounting for almost all of that total.

"Our offensive line just didn't do a very good job," said Broussard. "Of course it didn't help when (QB) Brock (Landry) had to leave the game early in the first quarter. When he did return in the second half we were able to spread things out a bit and go to the air in trying to come from behind."

Landry finished with 13 completions on 24 attempts for 202 yards and a touchdown. Senior Johnelle Derousselle also had a great game, completing 4-of-8 tosses while subbing for Landry for 72 yards and then catching four passes for 53 yards when Landry returned. And Treyvian Alexander finished with eight receptions for 170 yards and a touchdown.

"These guys all came through for us. They're real play makers," said Broussard.

Landry took a pretty good hit on his left shoulder early in the game and then got banged under the chin in the closing minutes. But Broussard says the injuries were not serious and Landry should be back at 100 percent for this Friday's game.

Senior offensive lineman Jordan Hebert is still questionable as he nurses a sore ankle.

And the Tigers face another high-powered offensive attack this Friday as the 7-1 Rebels are averaging more than 37 points per game coming off a 51-26 thrashing of St. Martinville that saw QB Taylor Dugas throw for 234 yards and four touchdowns to talented receivers Andrew Hebert and Elliot Hebert — and that was over just 2½ quarters.

"They've just got so much talent," observes Broussard. "We missed a lot of tackles against Northside and we sure can't expect to do that with Teurlings. Dugas is also a three-year veteran who is a pinpoint passer. But he can run when he needs to."

And the Tiger coach points out that the Rebels like to blitz on defense and do a lot of different things to keep the opposing offense off balance.

"We just have to be patient on offense and take what they give us," says Broussard. "We're fortunate in that our running and passing games have really complimented each other, that's been one of our strong points. But defensively, we've really got to do a better job of tackling."

St. Martinville

A porous pass defense and poor tackling put the Tigers behind the eight ball early as Teurlings scored almost at will in building a 37-7 half-time lead on the way to a 51-26 shellacking of The Ville last Friday as the Tigers slipped to 0-8 overall and 0-5 in district play.

"Our tackling was pretty bad," coach Marc Broussard admitted Monday. "And then we had all those penalties. You just can't have those kinda things against a team like Teurlings."

Broussard and his staff installed a new offense for last Friday's game, reverting to the wing-T used by the Tigers for the past three years. "This enables us to get the ball to other running backs like Gordy (Bourque) and Bryson (Mallery)," Broussard explained. "And it gives our offensive linemen more angles to block rather than trying to go head-to-head with the defense. And they executed pretty well."

Broussard was also pleased with junior Jules Tripeaux's first start at quarterback. "He executed pretty well, and had only one fumble (that we didn't lose), so we're satisfied with the job he did."

And senior tailback Trae Williams showed why he was one of the district's top threats last season, busting out for 181 yards and all four of SM's touchdowns. Mallery, who was coming off an absence of several games due to an early season injury, came through with 44 yards on 10 carries while Bourque carried 12 times for 67 yards.

The New Iberia Yellow Jackets, who have not beaten St. Martinville since 1990, have been struggling a bit themselves this year and bring a 3-5 record to Friday's contest. They've lost their last three games (to Pineville, Carencro and Westgate) while their three wins have been over Opelousas (30-10), West St. Mary (51-6) and Comeaux (27-3).

Among Broussard's main concerns as he prepares his team this week is the Jacket offense which features a talented quarterback in Ryan Clement and a dangerous running back in Emanuel Harding.

"They like to spread things out," says Broussard, "and they've done a lot of different things on offense this season," says the Tiger coach. "Defensively they've been up and down (allowing an average of 20.3 points per game) but they're definitely capable of playing good defense."

Broussard says he will be putting a lot of emphasis this week on "sending our seniors off with a win in their final home game," something the Tigers' few faithful fans would be happy to see.

Cecilia

"We were just real flat on offense," is the way coach Terry Martin explains his team's 16-0 win over Vinton last Friday.

The normally explosive Bulldogs, who had averaged more than 37 points over their previous four games, struggled after an opening drive that produced a quick touchdown. "We moved the ball pretty well, but came up with nothing on three different times in the red zone," Martin added. "Our quarterbacks missed some wide open receivers, and we had several dropped balls ... it was a lot of little things that just added up."

Fortunately the Bulldog defense came through with its second shutout in the last three games, limiting Vinton to 116 net yards.

Heavy Favorites?

The Bulldogs (6-2, 2-0) would seem to be a heavy favorite when they return to District 6-3A action this Friday at home against North Vermilion (4-4, 0-2). The Patriots have lost their last three in a row, including a 41-28 defeat by Erath last Friday. By contrast, the Bulldogs blasted Erath 39-13 when the two teams met a couple of weeks ago.

"Erath has been improving," Martin insists, downplaying any comparative scores while pointing out that North Vermilion has been averaging better than 20 points per game. "They feature a ball control offense," he said, "and are good on options. It's not a big play attack, they stick to the basics, nothing fancy."

"Last Friday's game sure didn't feel like a win," observes Martin. "I hope our kids are not letting up. We've got two big district games left and we can't afford to be flat," said the coach while also expressing concern over dealing with the usual distractions of homecoming week.

Rebels explode past SM

Aerial blitz keys 51-26 victory

St. Martinville - The Teurlings Catholic Rebels scored at will against a reeling St. Martinville defense, putting up 51 points against the Tigers in 2½ quarters of last Friday's District 5-4A game, the first meeting of the two teams.

The Rebels scored on five of their six possessions in the first half to lead 37-7 at intermission and then struck for two long touchdown passes in the third period on their way to the 51-26 victory. It was the most points allowed by a St. Martinville team in at least 40 years.

Teurlings scored three rushing touchdowns and four though the air while also picking up two points via a safety.

Rebel QB Taylor Dugas was near perfect in the passing department, completing 10-of-14 (mostly flares, screens and shovel passes) for 234 yards and four touchdowns. Andrew Hebert, who also scored one rushing TD, had eight catches for 204 yards with three scores.

Williams - 4 TDs
Senior tailback Trae Williams emerged as one of SM's few bright spots as he tallied all four of The 'Ville's touchdowns, mauling his way for 181 yards on 21 carries, although two of the TDs came in the fourth period against Rebel reserves.

St. Martinville went back to a double-wing offense, moving quarterback Gordy Bourque to a slot position and installing junior Jules Tripeaux under center. Bourque rushed for 67 yards on 12 carries while junior Bryson Mallory contributed 44 stripes on 10 totes.

The loss dropped St. Martinville to 0-8 for the season and 0-5 against 5-4A opponents. Teurlings moved into sole possession of first place, improving to 7-1 and 5-0.

The Rebels took the opening kickoff and needed only seven plays to light up the scoreboard with a one-yard Andrew Hebert TD run.

Elliot Hebert then returned SM's first punt 45 yards to the Tiger 18. After a personal foul penalty against SM Hebert rushed for the nine-yard TD.

St. Martinville's second punt attempt was even more disastrous as the snap sailed several feet over Bourque's head into the end zone for a safety.

The Tigers had to kick off from their 20 and Elliot Hebert returned the ball 45 yards to the 15. Six plays later Hebert scored on 4th-and-goal from the three and Travis White's third conversion put the Rebels into a 23-0 lead at the end of the first period.

The 'Ville battled back in the second stanza, putting together a 57-yard TD drive. Big plays included a fake punt from the SM 45 that Bourque converted into a first down inside TC territory, along with a 24-yard Tripeaux-to-Jeremy Skipper pass to the Rebel 16. Williams blasted 15 yards and then one for the touchdown and Alex Oubre's PAT made it 23-7 midway through the period.

But Teurlings answered with a 6-play, 63-yard drive that saw Dugas complete three straight passes for 41 yards, including a 16-yard TD strike to Elliot Hebert.

The Rebels struck again on their next possession, putting up seven more points just 22 seconds before the half ended. Dugas capped a 47-yard drive with an 18-yard toss to Andrew Hebert to give Teurlings a commanding 37-7 halftime lead.

Despite the big deficit, St. Martinville came out in the second half ready to play, taking the kickoff and driving 65 yards in six plays for a score. Mallery had carries of 13, 11 and 16 yards in the series, which was also aided by a 15-yard face mask penalty against the Rebels. Williams picked up his second TD on a 9-yard blast and Oubre's kick closed the gap to 37-14.

But the SM celebration was cut short three plays later when Andrew Hebert turned a screen pass into an 88-yard touchdown with some nifty open field running.

The Rebels got their final points minutes later when the Tigers were forced to punt from their own 14 following a personal foul penalty. Putting the ball in play at the SM 39, it took Teurlings just three plays to score. This time Elliot Hebert took a shovel pass from Dugas 39 yards for the TD and the Rebels were up 51-14 at the 5:06 mark of the third quarter.

Reserves began filtering into the game and TC's second unit defense couldn't match up against Williams. Early in the final stanza Williams broke a 47-yard touchdown and late in the game he ran roughshod over several defenders on his way to a 40-yard score, helping to make the final count 51-26.

The Tigers will make their final home appearance of the season this Friday when they host New Iberia's Yellow Jackets (3-5) in a non-district contest.

Missed PATs doom Breaux Bridge

In 28-26 loss to Teurlings

Lafayette - Breaux Bridge and Teurlings Catholic went toe-to-toe for four quarters of intense District 5-4A football action here last Friday, but when the final whistle sounded the Rebels had notched their first win over Breaux Bridge since 1986 and nailed down the district championship in their first year at the Class 4A level.

For the second week in a row a spirited fourth quarter rally by The Bridge fell short as missed extra points spelled the difference in the game's outcome. Week before last the Tigers fell to Northside by 28-25 and the back-to-back losses dropped interim head coach Paul Broussard's Tigers to 5-4 for the season and 3-2 in league play, putting them in third place behind Teurlings and Northside.

With the victory the Rebels improved to 8-1 and 6-0.

The BB defense had trouble containing Teurlings' talented trio of quarterback Taylor Dugas and running backs/receivers Andrew Hebert and Elliot Hebert. Dugas completed 12-of-14 passes for 169 yards and two touchdowns while the two Heberts combined for two rushing TDs and two touchdown receptions.

For the second week in a row Breaux Bridge's Jeremy Calais was held in check as the Rebel defense limited the senior tailback to just 12 yards on eight carries.

While the Tigers finished with only 102 rushing yards, quarterback Brock Landry was able to move his Tigers through the air, completing 11-of-20 attempts for 248 yards and two touchdowns. And backup quarterback Johnelle Derouselle completed one toss for a 16-yard score while catching two of Landry's passes for 105 yards and another TD.

The Rebels took the opening kickoff and used up more than half of the first period in driving 60 yards for a touchdown. Dugas went 5-for-6 to keep the Rebels moving and Elliot Hebert got the TD on a six-yard carry. Travis White kicked the first of his four PATs to put Teurlings up by 7-0.

The Tigers counter punched with a quick 70-yard drive of their own. Landry completed passes of 37 and 33 yards to Steven Schexnayder and Derouselle in moving the Tigers to the TC 10 where Steven Zeno ran it in. But The PAT kick was wide to the left and BB trailed 7-6.

Teurlings answered with another long drive that was boosted by a 15-yard penalty against the Tigers. A Dugas-to-Ashton LeBlanc covered 24 yards to keep things moving and Dugas connected with Andrew Hebert for a 15-yard TD strike early in the second stanza.

The Tiger offense went right back to work as Landry got BB moving with a 26-yard toss to Trevyn Alexander. Derouselle then ripped off a 23-yard run followed by a 12-yard Landry-to-Steven Schexnayder pass. Four plays later the Tigers faced a 4th-and-10 at the TC 15 and Landry came through in the clutch with a TD strike to Alexander. Landry tried to run for two points but was stopped short and the score stood at 14-12 with 7:58 left in the half.

After an exchange of punts the Rebels found themselves with good field position at the TC 45. The Rebels called on Elliot Hebert six times over the next eight running plays in moving to the BB nine. Then Teurlings went to the air, with Dugas hitting Hebert for the touchdown just 19 seconds before intermission to give the Rebels a 21-12 halftime advantage.

Teurlings struck again on its first possession of the third period after forcing a BB punt. A 50-yard Dugas-to-Ashton LeBlanc pass moved the Rebels to the Tiger 15 and Landry came through in the clutch with a TD strike to Alexander. Landry tried to run for two points but was stopped short and the score stood at 28-12 lead.

But Breaux Bridge wasn't nearly ready to quit and Landry opened the next series with a 30-yards strike to Alexander. The Tigers drove to the TC 16 before coming up short on 4th-and-3.

The Rebels had a 66-yard touchdown run by Elliot Hebert nullified by a holding penalty on their next possession and Breaux Bridge got the ball back early in the final quarter when Ricky Babineaux picked off a Dugas pass at the BB six.

Landry scrambled for 22 yards to get the Tigers out of the hole and then hit Derouselle for a 72-yard bomb that closed the gap to 28-18. Landry went to the air for the 2-point conversion, connecting with Alexander to make it 28-20 with 10:51 still to play.

The Rebels managed one first down after the kickoff but soon had to punt.

Taking over at their 32, the Tigers got moving with the help of an interference call followed by a 15-yard penalty against Teurlings. A Landry-to-Alexander TD pass of four yards capped the drive and cut the Teurlings lead to 28-26 with 4:23 showing. Landry tried to scramble for the two-point conversion but was stopped far short of the end zone by Rebel safety Seth Pierret to prevent the tie.

The Rebels were able to control the ball in the final minutes of the game to slam the door on the Tigers.

Alexander led the Breaux Bridge receiving corps with seven catches for 112 yards and two touchdowns.

The Tigers close out regular season play on the road this week against the 4-5, 1-4 Abbeville Wildcats.

Beau Chene at Teurlings

Kickoff: 7 p.m., today, Clark Field

Records: Beau Chene 5-5, Teurlings 9-1

Seedings: BC No. 29, Teurlings No. 4

Last meeting: Teurlings won 20-13 in OT on Oct. 5.

Next: Winner vs. Northside-O.P. Walker winner.

Players to watch: BC — QB Paul Richard (8-15-1, 160 yds, 2 TDs last week); WR James Andres (18-308, 3 TDs); LB Terance Lewis (65 tackles, 3 sacks in district); TEUR — QB Taylor Dugas (103-170-5, 1595 yds, 16 TDs); RB Elliot Hebert (149-870, 21 TDs; 31-488, 6 TDs rec.); RB Andrew Hebert (130-828, 10 TDs; 34-475, 6 TDs, rec.).

Matchup: When Teurlings Catholic and Beau Chene meet on Oct. 5 in Prairie Basse, neither team had any idea that the two schools would be matched up a second time five weeks later in the bi-district playoff round.

Exactly how much each team learned from that first encounter may be evident at 7 tonight when the No. 4 Rebels host the No. 29 Gators at Clark Field.

For the record, the Rebels squeaked out a 20-13 overtime win that night. Teurlings out-gained Beau Chene 355-202 behind Andrew Hebert's 229-yard rushing performance.

"Our kids had mixed feelings about playing Teurlings," BC coach James Waguespack said. "One, they were just glad to be in the playoffs. They actually were hoping to play a team from outside our district and travel a little bit, but now they're looking forward to playing Teurlings again."
